"Corsets for men are the rage in New York for summer wear," a corset salesman, said at the Castaneda hotel today. "Many will wear them for afternoon and evening dress. The styles most worn are distinctly form fitting."

Two marriage licenses were issued yesterday at the court house. The couples made happy were Feliciano Martinez, 16, Los Alamos, and Epifanio Martinez, 19, Sapello; Luisa Henly, 16, Lorenzo Roybal, 22, both of Los Alamos.

Hunting proved a profitable pastime for J. D. Johnston of Buxton and N. K. Dixon, who resides in Louisville, Ky. In the neighborhood of Monteza recently, Johnston killed five coyotes and twelve wild cats. Dixon slaughtered twenty-five coyotes. Johnston yesterday applied at the court house for $34 bounty. Dixon's claim amounted to $50. These are the largest claims for bounty that have been presented this year.

Santa Fe employees and their friends can look forward to still one more excellent entertainment this season. Arrangements were made yesterday for the appearance here on Sunday evening, April 29 of the Euterpean Ladies chorus. The chorus is made up of twenty-six voices and will give its performance in the Duncan opera house. The ensemble singing of the chorus is said to be beautiful while each of its members is an artist in her line. In addition to the singers the company carries a reader an expert whistler and an accompanist. Announcement as to reservations of seats will be made at a later date.

Miss Loretta Fetta, formerly a resident of this city when she attended the Normal University, died Wednesday at Nolan, where she had been living on a claim the past two years. With her at the time of death were three sisters, Miss Victoria Fetta, Miss Margaret Fetta and Mrs. H. J. Miller. The deceased was twenty-one years of age. The body was prepared for shipment by J. C. Johnson and Son of this city, and yesterday was sent to Ramona, S. D., the family home, for interment, accompanied by Miss Victoria Fetta.

F. H. Pierce is completing a summer house near the site of the new Agua Pura dam in the Peterson canyon. The building is of stone and cement. It has several rooms, one of which is 20 by 30 feet. An immense fire place is located in the living room. The house is situated on the north side of the canyon and affords an excellent view of the reservoir. An avenue has been cut through the trees and makes a pretty driveway to the building. A garage for the storage of automobiles is also being built.

The board of county commissioners will meet tomorrow in special session to sign contracts for the erection of the three new county bridges. The Missouri Valley Bridge and Iron Works of Leavenworth, Kan., which is the lowest bidder, was awarded the job at a recent meeting of the commissioners and the action tomorrow will be the formal signing of the contract. The three bridges will cost about $14,000.

C. C. Fleck now has on exhibition in the window of the Romero book store on Bridge street a revolver carried by him in the Civil war when he was a member of the First New York Light Artillery. The weapon is an antiquated affair and was equipped with a flint-lock before it was altered for the use of caps.

The Eagles will enjoy a social session and banquet tonight. Turkey and other good things, not forgetting plenty of dope that makes swallowing easy, will be provided. The Eagles are looking forward to lots of fun. They have invited visiting Eagles and friends of the lodge to be present and join in the merrymaking.

The entertainment committee of the B'Nai B'Rith lodge has notified the members of a dance to be given by the organization Tuesday evening April 25. The dance is to be a picnic affair and the members have been notified to bring their lunch and a tin cup. "We will furnish the water," the committee has announced.

Carpenters were at work today repairing the benches in the Plaza park. During the winter several benches were broken. The park is now a beauty spot. The grass is growing rapidly and the flower beds show the attentions of the caretaker.

Excitement and fun will be uncorked in Las Vegas during the week beginning May 1, when the Leonard Amusement company will be here and conduct a carnival under the auspices of the Greater Las Vegas band. The company is now showing in Albuquerque for the Beavers and has made a big hit with the people of the Duke City. The best recommendation for the show is that it is clean and free from any objectionable features, while it provides a high class of entertainment and plenty of fun. Several free attractions are given by the company daily, including a sensational balloon ascension and parachute leap. During the carnival the band will conduct a contest to determine who is the most popular girl in Las Vegas. A diamond ring will be awarded the winner of the contest on the closing night of the carnival.

The funeral of Helen, the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Williams, who died yesterday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family home, 707 Main avenue. Services will be conducted by Rev. E. C. Anderson, pastor of the Methodist church, and burial will be in Odd Fellows cemetery.
